PRESS RELEASE

(Hendersonville, TN—June 6, 2017) The 19th Annual Phillip Fulmer & Charlie Daniels Golf Classic was a successful fundraiser once again for The Jason Foundation, Inc. (JFI). This year, the event raised over $200,000 for the organization while also bringing great awareness to youth suicide prevention. This year's tournament was held at the Hermitage Golf Course in Old Hickory, TN on May 16th, where over 280 golfers participated. Charlie Daniels and his band finished the evening with a free concert for everyone in attendance.

Of course, Coach Phillip Fulmer and Charlie Daniels were present on this day with other recognizable patrons there to support the cause by their side. Current Adjutant General of the Tennessee National Guard Major General Max Haston was present to reinforce the collaboration between JFI and the TN National Guard. Middle Tennessee State University's Head Football Coach, Rick Stockstill, also made an appearance to show his support. Tennessee Secretary of State Tre Hargett and retired Tennessee Army National Guard Adjutant General Major General Gus Hargett were also on hand to promote The Jason Foundation's mission.

Co-Title Sponsors were ALPA Construction and Acadia Healthcare. Food was donated by Rafferty's of Rivergate and Chick-fil-A at Glenbrook in Hendersonville.

About the Company:

JFI is a non-profit organization dedicated to fighting "The Silent Epidemic" of youth suicide through educational programs for young people, educators, parents, and other community groups. JFI, headquartered in Hendersonville, TN, was founded in 1997 after the tragic death of Jason Flatt, the 16-year-old son of Clark Flatt.
